Glimpses of September, 2012 events

Mumbai, consisting of an exhibition and a conference. The conference is a congregation of business leaders and all stakeholders of business to deliberate the outcome of Rio+20 - The Future We Want and the role of business. The conclave is being organised by India Tech Foundation and General Carbon.

This conclave is organized parallel to Power India 2012 - an event which is successfully organized since the past 13 years.

Please find below the details as received from them

QUOTE

The major objectives of the ABRC 2012 are:

1. Deliberating on the Rio+20 outcome “The Future We Want” and its relevance to business in Asia
2. Bringing together all stakeholders to deliberate on different complementing and conflicting expectations on business responsibility and arriving at guide for action
3. Showcasing achievements in CSR by different business groups
4. Deliberating on resources, tools and methods to sharpen, strengthen and widen corporate sustainability practice

The conference would be addressed by eminent speakers from Indian as well as Asian organizations. We are looking forward to welcoming more than 250 delegates to participate in this conference and more than 50 exhibitors. Considering the criticality of the issues to be deliberated and knowing your deep commitment to CSR, we encourage you to support this conclave by:

1. Registering as delegates
2. Making presentations in various sessions
3. Showcasing at the exhibition
4. Being a sponsor

We are confident that ABRC 2012 will deliver the value and enhance business responsibility and an accountability environment.

Please refer to the attached brochure and do visit www.abrcexpo.com and obtain relevant information. For any assistance and further advise regarding the ABRC 2012, revert to Ms. Sanaiya at info@abrceexpo.com
